This Week's Scripture

"You shall call his name Jesus, for he will save his people from their sins." - Matthew 1:21

An exercise for this week:

This week, reflect on ways you can be a "savior" to those around you by offering encouragement, forgiveness, or practical help. Look for one opportunity each day to lighten someone's burden. In these acts of love, you become part of something greater—sharing Christ's saving presence with the world.

KNIGHTLY NEWS

Meetings

Our next Council meeting is January 19, at 6:30 PM in McDonough Hall.

If you're a Catholic male over the age of 18, we'd love to have you join us. Come meet the Knights. See for yourself what we're up to - the charities we support; the activities in which we're engaged; the communities we serve. We'll even throw in dinner!

To learn more, contact our Grand Knight, Michael Maley, at 6517gk@gakofc.org.

Knights of Columbus®

The Knights of Columbus Wish You and Yours a Most Merry Christmas. We join you in celebrating the coming of our Lord.

News & Events

Who You Gonna Call? The Knights of Columbus!

On November 2, an intrepid band of brothers tackled cleaning up the Sts. Anthony & Francis outdoor chapel -- cleaning, power-washing, blowing & "sudsing" (a technical term) to make the outdoor chapel suitable for the Creche ... and your outdoor meditation and communion with the Lord.

That Which You Do for the Least ... You Do for Me

We hope St. Matthew can forgive the paraphrase ... but the Knights feel the blessing of serving, perhaps most, when we go to the Shrine to feed the Homeless. It's one of the ministries we're proud to support. It reminds us of our blessings (and that one needs to be wary of giving Rich a knife or Billy an oven mitt without purpose. Just sayin').

Author or Text? Rethinking How We View Literature

For recent centuries, historians and critics have considered literature as one of the defining products of a culture. But how should we read and interpret the literary work?

Ben Johnson (1572-1637), in his poem "To The Memory of My Beloved, the Author Mr. William Shakespeare", finds the man and the work inseparable. Centuries later, the French philosopher Michel Foucault (1926-1984), in his essay "What is an Author?", contests the binding of the author to the art work.

Come join the next meeting of the Great Books Discussion Group on Thursday, January 8, at 7:00 PM in McDonough Hall, Side B, to explore these opposing views of literature. Subsequent meetings will be held monthly with selections from the Great Books Foundation series. For more information, please contact Patrick Carey at 770-241-2511 or careyph@bellsouth.net.
