This Week's Scripture

"The seed sown on rich soil is the one who hears the word and understands it." - Matthew 13:23

An exercise for this week:

In the Parable of the Sower, Jesus reminds us that God is always planting seeds of hope, faith, and love in our hearts. But busy schedules, worries, distractions, and discouragement can make it hard for those seeds to grow. This week, take time to create a little "good soil" in your life — slow down for prayer, spend a few quiet moments with Scripture, or choose kindness in a difficult moment. Look for one opportunity to encourage faith in someone else through a simple invitation, conversation, or act of compassion. Even small seeds, planted with love, can grow into something beautiful and life-giving.

A Message from Fr. Joseph Nguyen

Dear Holy Spirit Parishioners,

I am feeling a lot of emotions right now as I finish my first assignment here at Holy Spirit Church. Leaving this parish and all of you after two years feels surreal. Holy Spirit Church will always be the place where I learned how to be a priest and where I was able to fulfill my vision. These past two years have been filled with so much real joy and love.

I am incredibly grateful to God and to all of you. Witnessing your faith and dedication has been a true gift. Thank you for everything you do for our church and thank you for what you have done for me. Your support, kindness, patience, and love have helped me grow so much.

I also want to thank our volunteers, staff, and clergy who made working here such a joy. I especially want to thank Fr. Ballman. He has been a great pastor, mentor, and inspiration to me. Seeing how tirelessly he loves and cares for the people of this parish has been amazing to watch and learn from.

As I prepare to leave for my next assignment at Holy Vietnamese Martyrs, I am happy to share that Fr. Sean Lee is my replacement. You are in very good hands. Please keep both of us in your prayers, and please show him the same kindness and support you always showed me. You will all be in my prayers.

Sincerely in Christ,

Fr. Joseph Nguyen

HOLY SPIRIT CATHOLIC CHURCH IS PLANNING FOR THE FUTURE!

Later this month, every Holy Spirit family will be asked to participate in a survey process called a planning study. This study was born out of a vision to respond to some of our present growing pains, deepen our connection to our Catholic faith tradition and one another, and lay a strong financial foundation for the future. Bringing these plans to fruition will depend upon a major fundraising campaign, alongside the Archdiocese of Atlanta's Rooted in Christ—Growing in Faith Capital Campaign.

More information will be arriving in your mailbox soon and will also be shared through the parish bulletin in the coming weeks. Please prayerfully consider this invitation to share your thoughts and help shape the future of Holy Spirit Catholic Church. I look forward to sharing the results with you this fall.

In Christ,

Fr. Luke Ballman

Mission Advancement and Development: Get Involved at Holy Spirit

Save the Date - Ministry Fair on August 29 & 30

Some of the closest friendships at Holy Spirit started with simply saying yes. Whether you have an hour a month or an afternoon a week, there's a place for you here. Join us at our Ministry Fair on August 29th and 30th for a fun, no-pressure way to explore everything our parish has to offer and find something that fits your life. We'd love to see you there!

Did You Know?

Insurance is an essential part of responsible stewardship. Our parish's insurance coverage, which averages about $14,000 each month, helps protect our church and parish buildings, as well as the ministries, programs, and events that take place on our campus every day. This coverage allows us to provide a safe environment for worship, faith formation, service opportunities, and parish life. Your generosity helps make this important investment in our mission possible.

Questions About Memorial Garden & Columbarium Reservations?

Reservations are now open for niches in Holy Spirit's expanded Memorial Garden and future Columbarium. If you have questions or would like to learn more about gifting opportunities, Sarah Savoie, Director of Mission Advancement, will be available in McDonough Hall after the 8:30 AM and 10:00 AM Masses TODAY, Sunday, July 12. You are welcome to stop by to ask questions, pick up an application, or return a completed one. We would be happy to help you and your family as you consider this meaningful opportunity.

Parish Website Login Update

Our parish website now features a more secure login process to help protect your personal information. Parishioners will now sign in using their email address and verify their login with a confirmation code sent to their email.

If you have never logged in before, we encourage you to explore your parish account. It provides convenient access to your family profile, giving history, and other parish information—all in one secure place.

If you need assistance accessing your account or updating your email address, please contact Melanie Reveron in the parish office - mreveron@hscatl.com - or 404-252-4513.

Interested in Becoming Catholic?

Registration is now open for our next Order of Christian Initiation for Adults (O.C.I.A.) session, beginning Sunday, August 9. Classes meet Sundays at 10:00 AM, with reception into full communion at the 5:00 PM Vigil Mass on Saturday, November 21. Details are on the parish website.

Pastoral approval is required. To register or schedule an interview, please contact Dr. David King at dking@hscatl.com. Registration deadline: Sunday, July 26.

More Than Volunteering: A Vincentian Vocation

St. Vincent de Paul
GEORGIA
FEED. CLOTHE. HOUSE. HEAL.

The Society of St. Vincent de Paul teaches that being a Vincentian is more than volunteering—it is a vocation. We are called not simply to do acts of service, but to become people rooted in compassion, dignity, and love for our neighbors.

Our journey toward holiness is meant not only to make us better servants of the poor, but better husbands, wives, fathers, mothers, neighbors, friends, and Christians. That would be a lot to ask of a volunteer. But through the grace of this vocation, it is not too much for a Vincentian.

If you would like to learn more about serving neighbors in need and joining the Vincentian mission at Holy Spirit, email svdp@hscatl.com.

Para Reflexionar en Nuestros Hogares

Cita Bíblica

"El sembrado en tierra buena es el que escucha la palabra y la entiende." - Mateo 13, 23

Ejercicio de la semana

En la parábola del sembrador, Jesús nos recuerda que Dios siempre está sembrando semillas de esperanza, fe, y amor en nuestro corazón. Sin embargo, las agendas ocupadas, las preocupaciones, las distracciones y el desánimo pueden impedir que esas semillas crezcan.

Esta semana, procure preparar un poco de "tierra buena" en su vida: dedique tiempo a la oración, pase unos momentos en silencio con la Sagrada Escritura o elija responder con bondad en una situación difícil. Busque una oportunidad para fortalecer la fe de otra persona mediante una sencilla invitación, una conversación o un acto de compasión. Aun las semillas más pequeñas, sembradas con amor, pueden crecer y dar frutos hermosos que llenan de vida.

Recordatorio

Las inscripciones para Educación Religiosa del 2026-2027 se cerrarán el 31 de Julio.

El Campamento Bíblico de Verano

¡Último día para inscribir a los niños en el Campamento Bíblico de Verano!

El campamento se llevará a cabo del 13 al 17 de julio, de 6:00 p.m. a 8:30 p.m., para niños de 4 a 10 años.

¡Comienza mañana!
