This Week's Scripture

"Whoever comes to me I will never drive away." - John 6:37

An exercise for this week:

This week, reach out to someone you know who has suffered a loss in the past year. Offer them a word of encouragement, an invitation, or a simple act of kindness. In welcoming others as Christ welcomes us, you become part of something greater—the family of God where all belong.

Voss, president of Ethikos and associate professor at Georgia State, who will discuss his new book, Merchant Saint: The Church, the Market, and the First Lay Canonization. The book explores how Christian thought came to embrace honest commerce,

The cost is $15 with an RSVP or $20 at the door without an RSVP.

Help for a Neighbor in Need

St. Vincent de Paul GEORGIA
FEED. CLOTHE. HOUSE. HEAL.

Sometimes, all it takes is one unexpected setback to put a family in crisis. Recently, a father in our community—Terrence—lost his job after years of steady work as an insurance adjuster. With a seven-year-old daughter to care for and bills piling up, he was facing disconnection notices and possible eviction.

Our Holy Spirit St. Vincent de Paul team stepped in—bringing groceries, helping reconnect his power, and providing the support he needed to stay in his home until his new job begins this month.

Stories like this happen right here within our parish boundaries every week. Your prayers and generosity make moments of hope like this possible. To learn more, please email SVDP@hscatl.com.

How Much Should I Give?

Giving Should Change us

If our giving doesn't shape our lives, spending, or prayer, we may miss the joy of stewardship. Giving should be prayerful, generous, and proportionate, reminding us that all we have is a gift from God.

Let your giving form your heart.

Serve with Love: Volunteer with Holy Spirit's Homeless Ministry this Winter

The Homeless Ministry at Holy Spirit Catholic Church provides nourishment and support to homeless men who stay overnight in the basement of the Shrine of the Immaculate Conception downtown. The shelter operates during the winter months, from November 1 through March 31. Our ministry serves dinner and provides breakfast and lunch bags on select nights during the shelter season. Members of the ministry prepare food at home, which is then transported and served by volunteers at the Shrine Shelter.

This year we will be covering every Wednesday night during the shelter season. Two of those nights will be the day before Thanksgiving and Christmas Eve, so please be careful when you sign up. The Sign Up Genius page will be shared with everyone who expresses interest in participating. Children are welcome if accompanied by a parent. If you or your family would like to volunteer, please contact Kevin Skedsvold at koskedsvold@rhs-law.com to be added to the distribution list.

Wellness and Health with Dr. Christina Paul

The Women's Club will welcome parishioner Dr. Christina Paul on Monday, November 10, at 11:30 AM and 6:00 PM in McDonough Hall. Dr. Paul will focus on ways to empower us to take control of our own health, highlighting the top five healthy habits to adopt or continue. She'll address the root causes of common symptoms such as fatigue, brain fog, weight gain, and hormone imbalances, and address how to eliminate rather than just manage them. The cost is $20 and includes lunch or dinner.

Our Christmas Angel program is underway, and we invite you to share the spirit of giving with our Latino community this holiday season.

Before the pandemic, we celebrated with wrapped gifts. Today, out of care and respect, we give cash gifts instead—so parents can choose the perfect presents for their children.

Why cash? Because while Santa might know exactly what each child wants, we don't. By empowering parents to shop for their own families, we give not only joy—but also dignity and grace—to our hermanos y hermanas.

This year, our goal is $35,000, with a suggested gift of $100 per person.

Thank you! Your generosity directly determines how many families we can bless with the magic of Christmas.

There are several ways you may contribute:

- Scan the QR code
- Donate online at hscatl.com/christmasangel
- Donate in person the weekends of November 23, November 30, and December 7 (cash/check)
- Drop off your contribution at the parish office

All checks should be made payable to Holy Spirit Catholic Church with "Christmas Angel" in the memo line.

When Grief Finds a Voice - Great Books Discussion Group's November Meeting

Throughout history, writers, religious thinkers, and ordinary people alike have reflected on the universal theme of death. In this session, we will examine two works: Sara Suleri's "The Immoderation of Ifat", a chapter from her first book Meatless Days (1953-), and David Sedaris's essay "Now We Are Five" (1956-). Both pieces explore how the act of retelling personal loss shapes and transforms the storyteller.

The Great Books Discussion Group will meet on Thursday, November 13, at 7:00 PM in Malta Hall. Subsequent meetings will be held monthly, with selections from the Great Books Foundation series. Contact Patrick Carey at 770-241-2511 or careyph@bellsouth.net for further information.

Phoenix in Focus (Youth Ministry)

Phoenix is Holy Spirit's high school youth ministry program open to all 9th - 12th graders. Below are our upcoming events:

Considering the Catholic Faith? Enroll in the 2026 O.C.I.A. Program

We are now enrolling for the Easter 2026 session of our Order of Christian Initiation (OCIA) program which will begin on Sunday, January 4, and conclude on Sunday, May 17, with reception into full communion with the Roman Catholic Church at the Easter Vigil Mass on Saturday, April 4. The class meets on Sunday mornings in the parish office building from 10:00 AM - 11:15 AM, with Mass offered either before or after at 8:30 AM or 11:30 AM. The class will not meet on MLK, Easter, or Mother's Day weekends. A nominal fee of $35 is required to register for the course; this fee helps offset the costs of books and other materials.

Because acceptance into the program requires pastoral approval, prospective OCIA participants should begin gathering sacramental documents now, including, if applicable, certificates of baptism and marriage. Remote and in-person interviews with participants are now being held; please e-mail Dr. David King at dking@hscatl.com to arrange registration. The deadline for registration is Sunday, December 14.

Archdiocese of Atlanta Presents: Made for More Conference

Are you searching for greater purpose, deeper meaning, and authentic connection in your life? The "Made for More" conference on Saturday, November 22, from 9:00 AM - 3:00 PM at the Chancery, 2401 Lake Park Dr., is sponsored by Courage International and the Archdiocese of Atlanta. It is a day-long event on faith, identity, and witness, including men and women with an experience of same-sex attractions who are faithfully - and joyfully - living the call to chastity within the Catholic Church.

The conference features keynote speaker Kim Zember, a missionary, author, and podcast host. Hear from Father John Johnson, pastor of St. Joseph in Macon and chaplain for the Courage Apostolate in Savannah, and from Sam Kerlin, a convert to Catholicism who has wrestled with faith, identity, and purpose. Mass will be offered by Father Mark White, chaplain of Courage and Encourage in the Archdiocese of Atlanta.

Come into a welcoming space of reflection, renewal, and community, especially for young adults navigating the intersection of faith, identity, and purpose. Registration is now open online, and if you feel moved to support the event, donations are being accepted to offset the cost and to support Kim Zember's apostolate, Boldly Beloved. Don't miss this opportunity to encounter hope, open your heart to possibility, and remember: you were made for more. For questions or more information, contact the Office of Evangelization and Discipleship at oad@archatl.com or call 404-920-7620.
