This Week's Scripture

"You shall love the Lord, your God, with all your heart, with all your soul, and with all your mind." - Matthew 22:37

An exercise for this week:

In today's Gospel, Jesus reminds us that the heart of our faith is love: love of God and love of our neighbor. This week, look for simple ways to put that love into action. Make time for prayer, reach out to someone who may be lonely, offer patience when it is difficult, or lend a hand to someone who needs it. Ask yourself each day: How can I show God's love to someone today? Our love for God becomes visible in the way we treat the people around us.

Where Compassion Meets Courage

St. Vincent de Paul
GEORGIA
FEED. CLOTHE. HOUSE. HEAL.

Our Vincentians visited "P," a 66-year-old neighbor undergoing her third battle with cancer. As she continues treatment, we brought food and household essentials, provided grocery and transportation vouchers, and helped furnish her sparse apartment.

When we asked if we could pray together, she reached for our hands.

She later wrote: "I appreciate you all so very much. The help you are providing me has really lifted my spirit. I am so humbly grateful for your love and kindness, and I will be paying it forward."

We didn't just meet a neighbor in need. We met courage, faith, and a heart full of gratitude.

Great Books November Discussion on Hoffman

German Romantic E.T.A. Hoffmann (1776–1822) was a man of many talents but is best known for his short stories that blur reality and the unseen world. His work influenced writers such as Edgar Allan Poe, Dostoevsky, Dickens, and Kafka. The group will discuss one of his most acclaimed stories, The Golden Pot.

The next meeting will be held on Thursday, November 12, at 7:00 PM in McDonough Hall, Side B. For more information, contact Patrick Carey at 770-241-2511 or careyph@bellsouth.net.

A Parent's Guide for National Vocations Awareness Week

On Sunday, November 1, the Catholic Church begins National Vocation Awareness Week, a time to pray for and encourage vocations to the priesthood, religious life, and consecrated life. While events take place throughout the Archdiocese, let's remember that many vocations begin at home!
How Can Your Family Encourage Vocations?

- Pray Together: Whether through the Rosary, Adoration, or a simple prayer before dinner, prayer is powerful! Scan the QR code to find a Holy Hour for Vocations near you.
- Share a Meal: Invite a priest, religious, or seminarian to dinner. Hearing their stories may inspire someone in your family!
- Simply Ask: Know someone who might have a calling? Encourage them to consider it. A simple invitation can plant the seed of a vocation.
- Be Supportive: Encourage young people discerning God's call and reassure them of your prayers and support.

Every vocation begins with an invitation. By fostering faith at home, families can help young people discover God's calling and grow in holiness.

Marillac Moms Update

Ieil is almost 2 months old and already 12 pounds! He is sweet, healthy and happy, and Jazz is settling into life with her new son.

One of Jazz's biggest hurdles has been reliable transportation. Thanks to Holy Spirit Catholic Church and three generous donors, she now has a Honda Odyssey with room for all three children—one less barrier as she gets to work, manages childcare and handles everyday family life.

Now that her maternity leave is complete, Jazz is working with her coaches to find steady employment and build a budget for the future.

Through Marillac Moms, a St. Vincent de Paul Georgia program for pregnant mothers and their children, our Holy Spirit team is walking alongside Jazz as she works toward greater stability and independence.

We're grateful for everyone who continues to support Jazz and her family.

REUNIÓN COMUNITARIA SOBRE EL ESTACIONAMIENTO ELEVADO

LUNES, 2 DE NOVIEMBRE
6:00-7:00 P. M. | MCDONOUGH HALL

Desde hace muchos años, Holy Spirit necesita más espacios de estacionamiento.

Actualmente, Holy Spirit está solicitando la aprobación de la Ciudad de Sandy Springs para la construcción de un estacionamiento elevado. Como parte de este proceso, celebraremos una reunión comunitaria para presentar el proyecto, explicar cómo el diseño propuesto responde a las inquietudes de los vecinos, y escuchar sus opiniones.

¿Por qué es importante este proyecto?

- Mayor seguridad en la circulación de vehículos y el acceso peatonal.
- Más espacios de estacionamiento para la Misa, los eventos, y las actividades parroquiales.
- Mejor accesibilidad a las distintas áreas del campus parroquial.

Vista aérea del campus de Holy Spirit con el estacionamiento elevado propuesto.

Para Reflexionar en Nuestros Hogares

Cita Bíblica
"Amarás al Señor, tu Dios, con todo tu corazón, con toda tu alma y con toda tu mente." - Mateo 22, 37

Ejercicio de la semana
En el Evangelio de hoy, Jesús nos recuerda que el amor a Dios y al prójimo es el fundamento de nuestra fe. Esta semana, procure demostrar ese amor a través de pequeños gestos cotidianos. Dedique un momento a la oración, acérquese a alguien que se sienta solo, tenga paciencia incluso cuando le cueste, o tienda una mano a quien lo necesite. Cada día, pregúntese: ¿Cómo puedo hacer llegar el amor de Dios a alguien hoy? Recordemos que nuestro amor a Dios se manifiesta también en la manera en que tratamos a los demás.
