This Week's Scripture

"The stone that the builders rejected has become the cornerstone." - Matthew 21:42

An exercise for this week:

In today's Gospel, Jesus reminds us that God can bring something beautiful and important from what others overlook or reject. This week, pay attention to the people or situations that might be easy to dismiss—a neighbor who needs encouragement, someone who feels left out, or an opportunity to serve that seems small. Choose to look again and see where God may be inviting you to make a difference. Like the rejected stone that became the cornerstone, what seems insignificant to us may have great value in God's plan.

St. Vincent de Paul

FEED. CLOTHE. HOUSE. HEAL.

A single mom and Army veteran, raising her 10-year-old daughter, is usually able to keep up with her rent and bills. But after an unexpected major car repair, she fell behind and was just 10 days away from eviction.

Our Vincentians visited her at home, listened to her story, and helped connect her with resources. Thanks to the generosity of Holy Spirit parishioners through our Collection for the Poor, we were able to help with her rent and utilities. She has since passed an initial screening for a job she hopes will provide greater stability for her family.

WHAT I LOVE ABOUT HOLY SPIRIT:

As a recent convert, I love the traditional beauty and reverence of our Masses. I also love that there are so many ways to get involved and continue learning about the faith while getting to know the parish community.

WHAT I'M EXCITED ABOUT:

I'm really excited to be part of the larger projects taking shape across our campus, including the Amelia Mary Memorial Garden expansion. As someone who was married in St. Mary's Chapel, I'm grateful for what earlier parishioners made possible, and I'm excited to help create that same kind of legacy for future families.

FUN FACT:

I'm a big Fantasy Football fan, and it's one of my favorite parts of fall with my husband! I'm always up for talking sleepers, weekly matchups, or commiserating over the player who definitely should have stayed on your bench.

WHAT I LOVE ABOUT HOLY SPIRIT:

I love the sense of community at Holy Spirit. It truly feels like a family, and I love seeing people find their place, get involved, and build meaningful relationships.

WHAT I'M EXCITED ABOUT:

I'm most excited about growing our Young Families Ministry as we see more young families becoming part of our parish. I'm looking forward to creating more opportunities for them to connect, build friendships, and feel at home at Holy Spirit.

FUN FACT:

I'm a freelance photographer! I love photographing sports, events, and portraits, and photography has always been one of my favorite creative outlets.

WHAT I LOVE ABOUT HOLY SPIRIT:

I love how Holy Spirit understands that true beauty draws us to God. From sacred art and music to florals and thoughtfully planned events, the parish's commitment to excellence and traditional beauty reflects the order and harmony of God's creation.

WHAT I'M EXCITED ABOUT:

As a new parishioner, I am most excited about the Welcome Ministry's efforts to help newcomers feel at home and connected, as well as our work to make parish life more accessible by highlighting ministries, events, and opportunities to get involved.

FUN FACT:

Parishioners might be surprised to learn that I have a degree in environmental engineering! I'm grateful to still put that background to use in unexpected ways, from our database work to collaborating with our web developer to continually improve the Holy Spirit website.

Have a question about giving, want to get involved in a ministry or parish event, or not sure what your next step is at Holy Spirit could be? Our Mission Advancement and Development (MAD) team is here to help you get connected.

Cita Bíblica

"La piedra que desecharon los constructores es ahora la piedra angular." - Mateo 21, 42

Ejercicio de la semana

En el Evangelio de hoy, Jesús nos recuerda que Dios puede hacer surgir algo hermoso e importante de aquello que otros pasan por alto o rechazan. Esta semana, preste atención a las personas o situaciones que fácilmente podríamos ignorar: un vecino que necesita palabras de ánimo, alguien que se siente excluido, o una oportunidad de servir que parece pequeña. Deténgase a mirar de nuevo y descubra dónde Dios puede estar invitándolo a marcar una diferencia. Así como la piedra rechazada se convirtió en la piedra angular, aquello que nos parece insignificante puede tener un gran valor en el plan de Dios.

Convivencia de Liderazgo
