This Week's Scripture

"For God so loved the world that he gave his one and only Son, that whoever believes in him shall not perish but have eternal life." — John 3:16

An exercise for this week:

This verse reminds us that God's love is the foundation of everything — unconditional, generous, and life-giving. This week, lean into that love by sharing it with others. Reach out to someone who may need encouragement, offer forgiveness freely, or simply remind yourself that you are deeply loved. When we reflect God's love, we become part of something greater — a community built on grace and hope.

Parish News

Get to Know Our Pastoral Year Seminarian Oswaldo Franco

Can you tell us a little about yourself and where you're from?

I was born and raised in Rome, Georgia with my three siblings. I am the eldest of all of my siblings. I did all of my schooling in Rome, including my time in college, which was at Shorter University.

What are you most looking forward to during your time at our parish?

I am looking forward to walking and learning from all you at this beautiful parish. I look forward to working with the youth ministry and discerning other ways that I can serve the community.

How can our parish community best support you?

Everyone has already been so welcoming, and I am deeply grateful for that. I would just ask for openness and flexibility as I try to make myself available.

What are some of your favorite hobbies or things you enjoy doing in your free time?

Some of the hobbies that I enjoy are cooking, fishing, sports, and other outdoor activities, like camping and hiking.

What advice would you give to someone who might be discerning a vocation?

The advice that I would give is to not think that you need to walk alone. Some people believe that once they bring it into the light and share it with others that it becomes a huge thing. If you have a sense that this is where the Lord is calling you but are afraid, that's ok. However, don't think for a minute that you must figure it all out perfectly and fully by yourself.

"Forever Young" Ministry Hosts Mass with Anointing of the Sick and Luncheon

All of our senior parishioners are invited to a special Mass with Anointing of the Sick, followed by lunch, on Friday, September 26, at 11:30 AM in St. Mary's Chapel. We hope this will be a time of prayer, healing, and fellowship with our "forever young" community. Spend time with Fr. Cossio, our new parochial vicar, mingle with other clergy and friends, and enjoy a delicious lunch catered by C. Parks. The cost for lunch is $15 – payable online at www.hscatl.com/rsvp or in person the day of the event. RSVP by noon on Wednesday, September 24.

Urgent Second Collection for Humanitarian Relief in Gaza the Weekend of September 27 and 28

Archbishop Gregory J. Hartmayer, OFM Conv., has approved a special second collection to support Catholic Relief Services in bringing urgent aid to families in Gaza. Our brothers and sisters there face severe shortages of food, water, shelter, and medical care. Through this collection, we can extend Christ's love by helping families meet their basic needs and find hope amid suffering. Your generosity will bring comfort and relief. Please also keep all who are suffering in your prayers.

Find Hope and Healing: Grief Support Program this Fall

Wednesdays, September 24 - December 10

(skipping November 5 and 26)*

at 10:00 AM, Parish Office

If you've experienced the loss of a loved one through death, you are invited to join a small-group grief support program this fall. Guided by Dr. Wolfelt's book, Understanding Your Grief: The Ten Essential Touchstones for Finding Hope and Healing Your Heart, this 10-week session will be led by parishioner Ellen Cocks, a trained facilitator with a certificate in death and grief studies, specializing in "companioning others through grief."

The cost for the book and journal is $27 and will be due at the first session. Please note, the group will close after the first session. Space is limited, and pre-registration is required. If interested, please email Ellen Cocks at ellen@sweetlittlesoul.com.

Support Our Priests Through the Seven Sisters Apostolate

Women of the parish are invited to support our priests—Fr. Luke Ballman, Fr. Cristian Cossio, and Fr. Joseph Nguyen—by joining the Seven Sisters Apostolate, a beautiful international ministry of prayer.

Each participant commits to one Holy Hour of Eucharistic Adoration per week for a designated priest, ensuring continuous prayer for his intentions and protection throughout the week.

The Seven Sisters Apostolate is active in many countries, all 50 U.S. states, and includes over 40 groups within the Archdiocese of Atlanta.

To learn more about this apostolate or to join, please contact Marie Cahal, the Seven Sisters Apostolate Atlanta Area Coordinator, at sevensistersatl@gmail.com.

There's no limit to the number of women who can participate—seven is just the beginning!

Help and Hope - Neighbor to Neighbor

Love your Neighbor Live Vincentian

Next weekend's second collection supports St. Vincent de Paul Georgia, which serves neighbors in crisis across the state. While our Holy Spirit SVdP conference provides critical support right here in the 30327 and 30342, this collection extends your impact even further—supporting statewide programs like the Free Pharmacy, Motel2Home, Food Recovery, job assistance, and more.

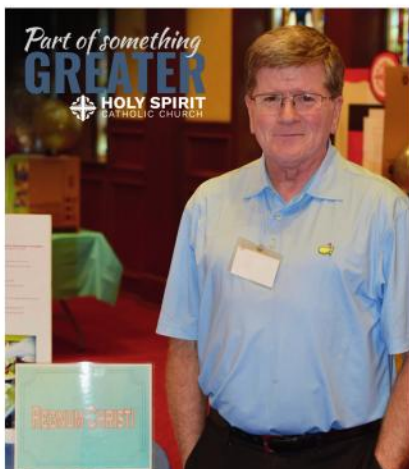

In 2024 alone, nearly 300,000 Georgians turned to SVdP for help. Thanks to generous donors like you, they received food, shelter, medicine—and hope—when it mattered most.

Beyond direct services, SVdP Georgia advocates for lasting solutions to poverty and injustice. As one of the state's largest and most trusted social service organizations—and part of a global ministry in over 200 countries—your support truly makes a difference.

Women of the Word: Rediscovering Hope - 8 Lessons to Turn Pain into Purpose

Tuesdays, beginning September 16
9:00 AM - 10:30 AM in McDonough Hall
Register at hscatl.com/RSVP

Join Women of the Word as they study the book, Rediscovering Hope, by Paula Umata. This Catholic book study reveals how God can transform life's deepest struggles into grace and purpose. Through real-life stories, prayers, and scripture, it explores the beauty of redemptive suffering - the Catholic belief that pain, when united with Christ, becomes a source of healing and spiritual growth.

From Rome to the Trenches: Great Books Explores Two Voices on War

Since the earliest writings, war has been a recurring theme in poetry and literature. In our upcoming discussion, the Great Books Discussion Group will explore two brief selections on this subject. Horace (65-8 BC), writing in the first century BCE, praises the sacrifices required by loyalty to one's country in Ode 3.2. Centuries later, Wilfred Owen (1893-1918) drew on his harrowing experiences of trench warfare to compose Dulce et Decorum Est - its title borrowed from Horace. His vivid account of modern combat reflects the grim realities of World War I. Tragically, Owen was killed in battle just a week before the war ended.

The next meeting of the Great Books Discussion Group is on Thursday, October 9, at 7:00 PM in McDonough Hall, Side B. For further information, please contact Patrick Carey at 770-241-2511 or careyph@bellsouth.net.

Para Reflexionar en Nuestros Hogares

Cita Bíblica

"Porque de tal manera amó Dios al mundo, que ha dado a su Hijo unigénito, para que todo aquel que en Él cree, no se pierda, mas tenga una vida eterna." - Juan 3:16

Reflexión de la semana:

Este versículo nos recuerda que el amor de Dios es el fundamento de todo: Incondicional, generoso y vivificante. Esta semana, vive ese amor compartiéndolo con los demás. Acércate a alguien que pueda necesitar aliento, ofrece perdón libremente o simplemente recuérdale a ti mismo que eres profundamente amado. Cuando reflejamos el amor de Dios, nos convertimos en parte de algo más grande: Una comunidad construida sobre la gracia y la esperanza.

Domingo catequético de 2025 21 de Septiembre

Fecha en que se hace un reconocimiento y agradecimiento a los catequistas por su dedicación y esfuerzo en la formación de jóvenes. Donde se resalta la importancia de la catequesis en la vida espiritual de la iglesia. Los invitamos a orar por ellos.

"Estén siempre listos a responder a todo el que les pida razón de su esperanza."
- 1 Pedro 3:15.

El lema de 2025 nos anima a estar preparados para compartir la base de nuestra fe, el Señor, y la esperanza que Él nos brinda. De la misma manera que San Pedro animó a los creyentes de su tiempo, la Escritura nos recuerda que compartir debe hacerse con amabilidad y respeto.
